

Whispers of Nature

Collection Write-up:

Whispers of Nature is an abstract rug collection inspired by the delicate interplay of branches, shadows, and soft light across forest floors and winter skies. Each piece in this collection evokes a quiet moment of stillness, branches etched like thoughts across muted canvases, where natural chaos meets tranquil design. Crafted with a fusion of contemporary technique and organic inspiration, these rugs blur the boundary between textile and landscape, making them timeless expressions of subtle beauty.
